Office of Comptroller of the Treasury,

WASHINGTON, March 20th, 1860.

WHEREAS, by satisfactory evidence presented to the undersigned, it has been made to appear that "THE MINER'S NATIONAL BANK OF SALT LAKE," in the City of Great Salt Lake, in the County of Great Salt Lake and Territory of Utah, has been duly organized under and according to the requirements of the Act of Congress entitled "An Act to provide a National Currency, secured by a pledge of United States bonds, and to provide for the circulation and redemption thereof," approved June 3d, 1864, and has complied with all the provisions of said Act required to be complied with before commencing the business of banking, under said Act:

Now, therefore, I, Freeman Clarke, Comptroller of the Currency, do hereby certify that "THE MINER'S NATIONAL BANK OF SALT LAKE," in the City of Great Salt Lake, in the County of Great Salt Lake, and Territory of Utah, is authorized to commence the business of Banking, under the said aforesaid.

In testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal of office, this Twenty-first day of March, 1860.

TUESDAY MORNING, MAY 15, 1866.

The Mines of Rush Valley.

We are glad to notice the [illegible] energy manifested [illegible] Stockton in the development of [illegible] ledges. A brief visit last [illegible] satisfied us of the richness [illegible] the ledges in that neighborhood. A stranger would be surprised to learn the number of claims located and well defined ledges discovered. Mineral Hill, most appropriately named, is literally filled with lodes of argentiferous galena, running in every direction through it. An extent of country embracing perhaps two miles square is already located, and the work of prospecting is only in its infancy. The owners of many ledges are actively engaged in developing the claims, sinking shafts, running tunnels, building furnaces etc. The ore is similar, if not identical, in most of the veins, being what is known as argentiferous galena—assaying from fifty up to, in some instances, three thousand dollars per ton. The operation of the mines can be attended with trifling expense, when compared with the large yield. Expensive machinery is not required,—the smelting process being considered the best and most available. Several furnaces are already completed. One of them is doubtless in operation to-day, and we await with much interest the news regarding its success. We are quite confident the present season will establish beyond dispute the value of these mines—thus giving a new impetus to Utah, and drawing here a population active and enterprising, which will soon build up the territory and make it loyal to the government in deed as well as in name. A fine saw mill, capable of turning out 30,000 feet of lumber per diem, is now in successful operation and ready to fill all orders sent to it. Wells, Fargo & Co.'s office, [illegible] mining companies, stage offices and by and by a telegraph line, we expect Stockton to increase in size and population, and as her mines turn out silver bullion, soon to be a rival to Salt Lake City—making it to Stockton what Carson is to Virginia City in Nevada. The silver is in Rush Valley, in paying amounts. Time will prove whether we have falsely stated in this respect, as was indirectly charged against us not long since in a journal opposed to any development of the mines in this Territory.

BY PACIFIC TELEGRAPH.

[SPECIAL TO THE DAILY UNION VEDETTE.]

CONGRESSIONAL.

SENATE.

The Senate, on Thursday, passed the bill for the coinage of five cent pieces, composed of copper and nickel in such proportion as not to exceed twenty-five per cent. nickel as shall be determined by direction of the mint standard of weight, to be 77 and 16-100ths grains, with no greater deviation than two grains to each piece. This act requires the withdrawal from circulation of all fractional paper currency of a less denomination than ten cents.

HOUSE.

McPherson, on Thursday, presented resolutions of the Legislature of California, indorsing the action of the delegation from that State on the Freedmen's bureau bill.

Higby asked unanimous consent to introduce a bill on Thursday granting the right of way and making grant of lands to the Sierra Nevada and Contra Costa Irrigation and Canal Company.

Which objected.

Pending, by unanimous consent, introduced a bill in aid of the construction of telegraph lines, and to secure to the Government the use of the same, for postal, military and other purposes. Referred to the Post Office Committee.

Chicago, May 14.

Upon the question, shall the main question be now put? in the House of Representatives, on Thursday, on which the ayes were 84 and nays 79, thereby compelling a direct vote on the reconstruction committee's report and cutting off all chance for amendment, Messrs. Bidwell and Higby voted aye and Ashley of Nevada and Henderson and McBride nay.

GENERAL NEWS.

Washington, May 13.

Judge Underwood, who arrived yesterday morning from Norfolk with the copy of indictment against Jeff. Davis for treason, was in consultation all day with Assistant Attorney General Ashton, Mr. Speed being temporarily absent in Kentucky. It is currently stated that Jeff. will be tried upon this indictment when the U. S. Circuit Court reassembles, at Richmond, to which place it is now adjourned to meet early in June, and Chief Justice Chase will preside, and Mr. Speed will be assisted in prosecution by Ex-Governor Clifford, of Massachusetts, and Evarts, of N. Y. The text of the indictment is not yet made public, but it is said to be very similar to the bill ignored by the Grand Jury, at Alexandria, some months since, which the Government did not then prosecute. Judge Underwood's charge to the Grand Jury, Tuesday, 8th, clearly set forth their duties, to act fearlessly even through [illegible] menaces, bring them enemies and murderous assaults, as had been done to the previous Grand Jury; in this connection he revoked his charge to the Grand Jury as that preceding them, and would not recall it. If not, indictments they attested the arguments he had then expressed, that since their peace had been declared and the writs of habeas corpus had been restored.

President Johnson expressed a desire that as much subordination as [illegible] should be maintained, [illegible] Senators, it was thought these acts and punish the principals and not the tools. It had been decided that such offenders must be tried in Virginia. At the North there had been much complaint of tardiness shown in bringing them to trial, the delay had been unavoidable. There was no need of further delay and he hoped the time had come when it would be shown here that treason is held as a crime [illegible] ing the highest punishment [illegible] the [illegible] of the people [illegible] the [illegible] [illegible] up [illegible] should not be held accountable for [illegible] those who [illegible] impeded [illegible] the [illegible] ality [illegible] prejudice of the masses, inciting them to rebellion against the Government he would have punished; there was no obstacle now in the way to bring indictments against all the leaders in this last rebellion, paroled prisoners as well as the unparoled.

Judge Underwood announced that he thought Chief Justice Chase would be in attendence to preside in June. The Grand Jury then retired and on Thursday 10th, brought in an indictment against Jeff. Davis, when Underwood adjourned the court to Richmond.

Chicago, May 14.

The House Judiciary Committee, who have been making inquiry what evidence exists against Jeff. Davis of complicity in Lincoln's assassination, have been unable to get any response from the Secretary of the State or showing reasons for the famous proclamation 3d of May, 1865. It is understood the Committee will call upon the President before making a report to the House.

Receipts of Internal Revenue during the week amounted upwards of four and a quarter millions, and custom receipts 2,700,000, making a total of $7,000,000. The Government will lose between two and three hundred thousand dollars by the failure of the banks in Western Pennsylvania holding public deposits. These banks were ruined by the failure of Culver & Co., oil operators.

Chicago, May 13.

A fire at Oshkosh, Wis., destroyed thirty buildings in the business portion of the city, loss $100,000.

New York, May 12.

The late O'Mahoney Head Quarters, in Union Square, is closed and private secretary [illegible] Stephens is occupying the building. It is stated that O'Mahoney's Treasury contains less than $300, although Stephens is making every effort to effect a reconciliation between the rival Secretaries of the Brotherhood. Matters will not be easy while seeking the co-operation of Roberts, which is at present the most potent of the two; he has carefully abstained from recognizing the Fenian Senate. Stephens issued an order to-day, calling on all exiles in the U. S. to subscribe towards the movement in Ireland and send money to him at his Head Quarters, Metropolitan Hotel.

Chicago, May 14.

The Senators elect from Colorado emphatically deny the imputation that there was a bargain and agreement to secure votes for the passage of the bill [illegible] aid to the Congressional majority against the President, and they further say that their call upon the President, which has excited the comment that they were pledging support to him, was simply to present such facts and documents as show the population, substantial wealth and permanent prosperity of Colorado, and had no reference whatever to politics.

Washington, May 14.

The Senate is much behind the House in matters of business, chiefly appropriation bills, which have passed the House. [illegible] construction report will be pressed for immediate action, seeing the debate might be interminable and delay legislation which it is desirable to get out of the way as soon as possible.

Gov. Goodwin Delegate from Arizona does not agree with Ross Browne in doubting the Indian news from that Territory, but believes it may be true.

Foreign News.

New York, May 13.

The steamers City of Paris and Germania have arrived with the latest from Liverpool, Southampton, 2d, by the Paris, Queenstown, 3d.

Contrary to rather general expectation, the British Ministry have refused to regard the close vote on the reform bill as equivalent to defeat.

Gladstone announced in Commons that the bill would be pressed, and the bill for redistribution of seats would be introduced on the 7th, so that both might be considered together. In reply to the question if the Government would stand by the bill; he said, as long as the bill stands, we stand, if it falls, we fall.

The Liberal papers rejoice that the issue is now plain, and that Liberal members must now face the question without the protection of an evasive amendment.

The Jamaica commissioners arrived at home. Nothing official as to their report, but the Times anticipates it will justify martial law but censure subsequent proceedings.

A police constable had been shot dead in Dublin by a Fenian.

The German question continues warlike.

Austria and Italy are menacing.—Both governments deny aggressive designs, but both are represented as vigorously preparing for war.

The Italian Parliament has promptly voted authority to government to raise means for the defence of the country.

A popular meeting at Naples was in favor of [illegible] armaments, and a universal enthusiasm is represented as prevailing throughout Italy in view of probable war.

It is asserted that the Italian government has called out 150,000 men.

The Austrian force at Vienna is said to be 160,000.

The Florence correspondent of the London Times says that there can be no doubt that the Italian government desires war as the only means of extrication from an exceedingly false and difficult situation.

Austro-Prussian relations show no improvement. The Berlin Dispatch talks of probable increased armaments by Prussia.

There has been a severe panic on Change in London and Paris funds, and securities were materially depressed.

Napoleon presided at a special council of ministers on the 30th, report says to consider the Austrian proposition that Austria and Italy should simultaneously disarm, and the rumor says that it was determined at the meeting to prevent Italy taking the aggressive, and to insist on the proposition.

A Berlin telegram of the 1st says it is believed that the Prussian Army will be shortly increased.

A reply, dated the 29th, to an Austrian note, has been sent to the Prussian embassador at Vienna, stating that Prussia does not agree to the Vienna cabinet's proposal [illegible] to the Duchies. It lays special stress upon the commonality of the interests of Prussia and Italy. [illegible] answer to the Austrian proposal for disarmament. Immediate terms between Austria and Prussia are expected as Austria will submit her proposals to the Federal Diet, but affairs continue critical.

The Vienna Press of the 1st states that the negotiations between the Prussian cabinet and the special envoy of Italy continue.

The official Vienna Gazette publishes a notice that an increased number of army surgeons are required.

A despatch to the Italian Republican, General La Marmora, states that at the moment when the disarmament of Austria and Prussia was effected, Italy saw herself directly menaced by Austria, who increased her armaments and gave them in Venetia an overtly hostile character against Italy; it therefore became indispensable for the security of the Kingdom that both land and sea forces be increased. In taking military measures required for the defense of the country, government has only acted in accordance with the state of things created by Austria.

A Florence telegram says a proclamation has been issued by the minister of war calling under arms the soldiers on unlimited furloughs.

A Mexican officer had arrived at Vienna on a special mission. He bore a letter from Maximilian—purport unknown.

THE MORMONS.—The editor of the Mormon Telegraph, passed through Denver, Thursday 3d, on his way East. He writes [illegible] the News concerning the late reported outbreak there, says it is false, that Brassfield was killed for marrying another man's wife, the Judge who married them claiming that he knew nothing of the status of the woman; that Gentiles to raise a rumpus and get up another war for the benefit of speculators; that the fact of the peaceable existence to-day of the worst enemies of Utah is proof sufficient that the murder of their enemies, so freely charged on the Mormons, is false. Of course this is the Mormon side of the story.

Polygamy is against the genius of our institutions, social, religious and political, and is forbidden by our statutes.—To get a test case before the courts, a man marries the concubine of a Mormon. He is assassinated for it. That man's assassination is the act and crime of Brigham Young. It was as foul a murder as ever was committed in the world, and calls for investigation and correction at the hands of the President of the United States. Done in a foreign country the murderer would be demanded, and if not given up, war would ensue. The Government owes its subjects protection against this foul, cruel and monstrous thing that has risen like an exhalation from the festering corruption of a world, condensed fallen, taken root, and sprung into a giant Upas within the domain of the United States.

The whole Mormon people justify the assassination of Brassfield: his deliberate, cold-blooded murder, for marrying the concubine of an absent Mormon by and with her consent! It is unnecessary to inquire into the effects of the relative systems of polygamy and monogamy,—Asia, and Europe and America, present them on a grand scale. One makes woman a thing, a slave; the other, a companion and help-meet for man. We are for the latter forever and ever and under all circumstances. We call upon the Government to vindicate its dignity and authority in the protection of its citizens against this embryo nation of adulterers and assassins. It is necessary for the exploration and improvement of the West, and to strengthen it against the senile immorality of the Oriental nations which on the banks of the Dead Sea of the Western World now has a nucleus and starting point. It is demanded in the name of an insulted majesty of law, the serene and beneficent Genius of our times. It is demanded in the holy and sacred names of women and mother, in the name of God and all that is good and noble.—Black Hawk (Col.) Mining Journal.

THE UTAH FORTRESS.—A friend, writing to us from the capital city of the Saints, gives us an inkling of a movement afoot by which this lady, Miss Sarah E. Carmichael, is to receive, what rarely falls to the lot of poetical aspirants, a pecuniary benefit, in the shape of profits realized on the publication of a choice selection of her poems for private circulation. The idea is original, and as creditable to the projectors as it is complimentary to the gifted authoress. Miss Carmichael's writings are familiar to most readers on the Pacific slope through the newspaper press, and have attracted much attention on account of their steadfast devotion to loyalty and truth in a region where those commodities are usually held at a discount. We shall look with interest for the appearance of this modest contribution to domestic literature.

BEAUTY OF THE SYSTEM.—A few weeks since, Adelle Thorne Pray gambol died in this city, leaving property valued at upward of one hundred thousand dollars, and now one of his wives is working as a servant girl to obtain a living. Where did the money go?

MR. LYNCH, Clerk of the U. S. Third District Court, has received the following:

To P. LYNCH—
By telegraph from Virginia Dale:
Adjourn the courts till the 28th and 29th instants. JOHN TITUS, Judge.

The following assays from Cottonwood, Utah, ore:

San Francisco, March 13, '66.

DEAR SIR—We have assayed the sample of ore you left with us, and find that it contains as follows, per 2000 lbs: 5.50 oz. of gold, value $113.52; 5.25 oz. of silver, value $6.78; total $121.30.

Respectfully yours
KELLOGG, HEWSTON & Co.

I. O. O. F.—The Grand Lodge of Odd Fellows, which closed its session in San Francisco on Saturday, May 5th, adopted a constitutional amendment reducing the representation of subordinate Lodges in that body, so that instead of being as heretofore—three for each Lodge and one addition for every fifteen members—it is one for each Lodge and one for each thirty members. Subordinate Lodges were directed to cease admitting non-affiliated Odd Fellows until further order. The next session is to be held at the city of Washington.

RE-ORGANIZED CHURCH OF LATTER-DAY SAINTS.—We learn from the Herald, published in Plano, Ill., that J. W. Gillen has been appointed to a mission to Utah, and that it was resolved "in view of the demand of the work in Utah it is deemed advisable that, as far as practicable, the saints in that region remain for the present." Elder Thomas Taylor was appointed to preside over the mission, embracing the Territories of Utah and Idaho. The church is represented in a flourishing condition, having about fifty thousand members. This organization does not practice the abomination of polygamy—lives in peace, obeys the laws, and none are found to molest them. Utah Mormons should note it.

GALLANT.—This gallant officer was, upon his own application, mustered out of the volunteer service on the 30th ult. He was solicited to remain in service by the War Office as well as by nearly all of our Western Senators and Representatives familiar with the Mormon question in Utah. He, however, declined, basing his application for muster out on the ground of more than three years continuous service in the army as Brigadier General. On the 19th of April last he was made a Major General by Brevet, and on the day his order for muster out was made he was tendered a commission as Colonel of Cavalry in the Regular Army. He is not yet decided whether he will accept the commission. Last week he went to Washington in conference with General Grant on matters pertaining to this Territory. He will return here early in June, and we hope to see him wearing the eagles of the Regular service—while they would honor him we know that he would honor them. He is loved and respected by every true soldier who has ever served under him, and is feared and hated by those who hate the Government and the principles it represents.

From California.

[By Enterprise.]

San Francisco, May 8.

About midnight last night a fire broke out in the rear of a stable on California street, formerly Gough & Covey's, and destroyed a frame building used as a carpenter shop, and gutted the Burnett House, a cheap lodging-house on Webb street. The damage altogether is about $3,000.

At the annual election of the Chamber of Commerce to-day, the following officers were elected:

President, R. G. Sneath; First Vice President, R. B. Swain; Second Vice President, J. W. Stowe; Secretary and Librarian, Wm. R. Wadsworth; Executive Committee, Albert Dibblee, Washington Bartlett, A. L. Tubbs; Committee of Appeals, George H. Kellogg, C. J. Dempster, G. Friedlander, J. B. Roberts, Adam Grant, Thomas H. Shelby; Committee on Arbitration, W. Frank Ladd, Bela Wilman, W. Bartlett, C. Hopkins, Levi Stevens. The President of the Chamber is ex officio member of the Board of Health.

Mrs. Del Dewell appeared on Third street this evening attired in Bloomer costume and created quite a sensation. She was soon surrounded by a crowd of boys, whose hootings and cat calls compelled her to take refuge in a store.

Choice of seats on Forrest's opening night will be sold at auction, by Cobb & Sisson, next Friday. Ambitious hatters, clothiers and quack doctors will probably embrace the opportunity to advertise themselves.

Arrivals and Departures.

FOR THE OVERLAND STAGE LINE.

To the West—Mr. Davis.

To the East—No Letter.

From the East—Mr. Poznansky and wife, Mr. Stratesburger.

I have come back to you, Mother,
Wear'y, chilled and tired,
Locks matted o'er forehead,
Eyes dimmed by the rain,
Worn garments clinging
To my weak, trembling form.
It's no wonder you shrink from me,
As if I had struck you a blow.
You parted with three years ago!
Eager and fierce for the strife
While this one is weary and wasted,
Scarred, and a cripple for life!
Mother, God knows for the Union
I'd fight till my very last breath;
But just twenty-one—and a cripple,—
For you it had better been death.
Not for you, darling Mother, nor you, Lily,
For another there was when I left—
With eyes that were bluer than Heaven,
And lips like the ripe cherry cleft!
My Maggie she was—may God bless her!—
I meant to have made her my wife—
She had promised—but now 'tis not for her
To mate with a cripple for life!
There, Mother, don't weep, it was cruel
To utter one word of regret;
'Twas all I could give, and I gave it—
My right arm is left, to me yet.
With that and my pension, and Mother,
We'll keep off the wolf from the door,
And if you are contented and happy,
God will help me to win for me more.
But hark! who's that I heard sobbing
Just then, in the chamber close by?
Oh! Maggie, my love and my darling,
Kiss me once ere you bid me "good-bye."
What is this—you will never forsake me?
My love only makes me more dear?
God bless you! dear Maggie, you've given
New life to your poor volunteer!
No work for me now—are you saying
Nay, dear—tho' I can't drive the plow,
There are trades that my one arm can master,
And I've courage for anything now,
With your love and Mother's to bless me,
I've no room in my bosom for fears,
And may God send as bright a home-coming
To all of our brave volunteers!

The "Stonewall Saloon."

GEO. W. HYNSON, Pro'r,

Wallace street, 2d Door above Jackson,

VIRGINIA CITY, Montana.

IS the favorite resort of gentlemen who arrive at the Capital of Montana. The spacious stone building is the finest in the city.

My large hall in the second story, (lately used as the Hall of the House of Representatives,) is used as a social club-room, and supplied with the latest papers. My wines, liquors and cigars are guaranteed to be genuine, and a call is all that's needed from the transient gents to insure satisfaction.

Respectfully,

Geo. W. Hynson.
